

Bridge of Souls: Ceremony of Remembrance

Date Oct 17

Time 2:30pm

Place: Indian Spring Park – Main Stage

2:00 – 2:20pm Revd. Thomas Brooks to perform with small group – appropriate lead-in music

Speakers gather on front row in preparation

2:25 Amazing Grace on Bagpipes (Torrin Longenecker)

2:30 Welcome (Fiona/Doreen) - (thanks to everyone who made project happen, summarize purpose and order of ceremony, acknowledge ART is a language for carrying what we can't say in words - grief, thanksgiving, love, and hope)

2:35 Dillon Meek (City of Waco) – (setting the tone - Compassion for those grieving loss – thanks to those that care )

2:40 Patricia Chisolm Miller (McLennan County) – (Importance of seeing the true impact of the pandemic on our community)

2:45 Christina Gibson (Crisis Counseling) – (there is help for those that need it – how to give and receive help, introduce ribbons honoring frontline workers project)

2:50 LaShonda Malrey-Horne (Director, McLennan County Health District) – appreciation for healthcare sector and how we can respond to support them and community

2:55 Jackson Griggs (Director Waco Family Medicine and Chair of McLennan County Health District) – It's ok to grieve – and live – and hope

3:00 Introduce Waco Community Choir - Waco Community Choir program (Doreen)

Speakers and organizers take up ribbons and lead the way, tying ribbons in honor of healthcare workers and first responders between the banners